Two murder cases will be tried at

Mr. Colfax Indorsed by Fifteen

Hundred Friends and the President.

Ex-Vice-President Colfax arrived at South Bend, Indiana (his home), on last Saturday, and proceeded in a carriage to the court-house, followed by an escort in carriages and an immense number of people on foot and in wagons. Hon.

William Miller, the Mayor, delivered an address of welcome, to which Mr. Colfax responded in a speech of considerable length. He commenced by saying:

"My heart would be cold and callous indeed, as it is not, if it did not thro-be more quickly and happily at such a welcome home as this one with which I am honored, and the gratitude for which it would take a life-time to exhibit here.

"You have known me from my childhood. My going out and coming in have been before your eyes. My character has been formed in your midst, and you know whether for a paltry sum of money I could be induced to shipwreck it. When you come hither, therefore, by thousands and thus spontaneously, and, as I am glad to be told and to be, no, my political friends alone, but prominent and life-long political opponents, who come to honor with unmistakable manifestations of unabated confidence and affectionate regard, I am indeed honored and gratified."

Mr. Colfax then referred to the ma-gnificity with which he had been pursued by a portion of the American press and their Washington correspondents for his supposed connection with the Credit Mobilier. He referred to a speech made by him at Chicago in September, 1872, and printed in the Chicago Inter-

Ocean, in which he stated that neither

Oakes Ames nor any other person ever gave him one share or 300 shares of Credit Mobilier or any other railroad stock, and that he never sold or received the value of a farthing out of the 270 percent dividends or 900 per cent dividends that his hearers had read about during the past month; nor 100 percent, nor one tenth of 1 per cent.

He also referred at length to his testimony before the investigation committee, and finally read a letter from Mr.

Dillon, cashier of the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives, in which he stated that he was confident that the checks to initials or bearer were all paid to Ames himself, especially the one for $1,200, marked "C. C.

or bearer."

At the conclusion of the remarks of Mr. Colfax, Col. Humphreys presented him a letter, with 1,500 signatures of well-known citizens attached, expressing the confidence of the signers in him; after which the following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That in welcoming S. Colfax home to-day, after his twenty years of arduous public service, in which he has been excelled by none as a model statesman, temperate and faithful to principles, we do so with unlimited confidence in his honor and integrity both as a public man and private citizen."

President Grant has authorized the publication of the following letter:

"EXECUTIVE MANSION,

"WASHINGTON, March 4, 1873.

"MY DEAR MR. COLFAX:—Allow me to say that I sympathize with you in the recent congressional investigations; that I have watched them closely, and I am as satisfied now, as I ever have been, of your integrity, patriotism, and freedom of the charges imputed as if I knew of my own knowledge of your innocence. Our official relations have
